Speaker Biographies

Rodrigo Buenaventura

Secretary General of the International Organization of Securities Commissions

Rodrigo Buenaventura took over as Secretary General in January 2025. He served four years as Chair of the Spanish financial markets regulator, CNMV, until December 2024, and as such was a member of the ESMA and IOSCO boards. Rodrigo chaired several policy committees within ESMA (Investor Protection, Market Integrity and Markets) and IOSCO (Sustainable Finance Task Force).
Previously, he developed a career in financial markets regulation and supervision, starting at CNMV in 2005 as Head of International and then Secondary Markets, joining the then newly created ESMA as its first Head of Markets (2011 to 2017) and then back at CNMV as Director General for Markets until 2020. He specialized in post-trading, market abuse supervision, corporate reporting, market structure and corporate governance.
After graduating in Economics in Madrid, he spent the first eleven years of his career (1993-2004) in the private sector as a financial consultant at a leading Spanish consulting company (AFI). First as a fixed income and monetary policy analyst, then as partner of the firm and member of the executive committee, focusing on asset and liability management, securities issuance, debt management, rating advice and public finance.

Hal S. Scott

Emeritus Nomura Professor of International Financial Systems at Harvard Law School and President of the Program on International Financial Systems

Hal S. Scott is the Emeritus Nomura Professor of International Financial Systems at Harvard Law School (HLS), where he taught from 1975-2018. His HLS courses were on Capital Markets Regulation, International Finance, the Payment System and Securities Regulation. He is currently an adjunct Professor of Public Policy at the Harvard Kennedy School of Government where he teaches Capital Market Regulation and a guest lecturer at Tsinghua University. He has a B.A. from Princeton University (Woodrow Wilson School, 1965), an M.A. from Stanford University in Political Science (1967), and a J.D. from the University of Chicago Law School (1972). In 1974-1975, before joining Harvard, he clerked for Justice Byron White.

He is the Director of the Program on International Financial Systems (PIFS), founded in 1986, as part of Harvard Law School, which became independent in 2018. Besides doing research, the Program organizes the annual invitation-only U.S.-China, U.S.-Europe, and U.S.-Japan Symposia on Building the Financial System of the 21st Century, and special event roundtables. HLS is the non-financial sponsor or these events. In addition, PIFS partners with Executive Education at HLS in offering executive education for financial regulators. Professor Scott's books include the law school textbook International Finance: Transactions, Policy and Regulation (23rd ed. Foundation Press 2020); Connectedness and Contagion (M.I.T. Press 2016) and The Global Financial Crisis (Foundation Press 2009). He is the author of numerous journal articles and oped pieces in leading newspapers. Professor Scott is also the President and Director of the Committee on Capital Markets Regulation, a bi-partisan non-profit organization organized in 2006, dedicated to enhancing the competitiveness of U.S. capital markets and ensuring the stability of the U.S. financial system via research and advocacy.

He is also an independent director of MEMX, the Members Exchange and a member of the Market Monitoring Group of the Institute of International Finance. He is a past independent director of Lazard, Ltd. (2006-2016), a past President of the International Academy of Consumer and Commercial Law and a past Governor of the American Stock Exchange (2002-2005).

John L. Golden

Global Head of Financial Regulation at Apollo Global Management

John L. Golden has served as Global Head of Financial Regulation of Apollo and Athene since January of 2025. He is responsible for overseeing supervision and regulatory risk management of Apollo and Athene, developing and advancing Apollo and Athene's global regulatory strategy and managing overall relationships with regulators and industry associations globally. He previously served as Apollo and Athene's Global Head of Insurance

Regulation, and Athene's Executive Vice President and General Counsel with responsibility for the legal and compliance functions of Athene. Prior to joining Athene, Mr. Golden was an attorney at Sidley Austin LLP.
Mr. Golden received his Juris Doctor from the University of California, Los Angeles and a Bachelor of Science in operations management and information systems from Santa Clara University.

David Croen

Product Manger for Direct Lending and Credit at Bloomberg

David is head of Private Credit for Bloomberg, L.P., with focus on the intersection of private markets, credit risk and regulatory evolution and quantitative methods, and has led the firm's development of credit risk models and risk applications. Previously, David led risk management and valuation for global banks and asset managers, with specialization in credit and securitization. He contributed to the President's Working Group on Financial Markets Best Practices for Risk Management (2008) and has advised regulators and accounting firms on complex structured finance transactions. David earned a B.A. in Applied Mathematics and an MBA in Finance, both from the University of Rochester.

Steffen Kern

Chief Economist and Head of Risk at European Securities and Markets Authority and Professor in Financial Market Development, Risk and Regulation at the Leibniz Institute for Financial Research

Steffen Kern is Chief Economist and Head of Risk Analysis at the EU's financial market regulatory and supervisory authority ESMA in Paris (France). Appointed in 2012, he leads ESMA's analytical work on financial stability, market integrity, and investor protection in securities and derivatives markets, the institutional investor industry as well as the financial market infrastructure of the EU. Kern is a member of the advisory committees on financial market risks and vulnerabilities at the Financial Stability Board (FSB), the International Organisation of Securities Commissions (IOSCO), and to the European Systemic Risk Board (ESRB). He co-chairs the FSB's and the ESRB's expert groups on non-bank financial intermediation, and the ESRB's High-Level Group on Crypto Assets. He is a member of the Group of leading Chief Economists at the World Economic Forum (WEF), and has been appointed co-chair to the WEF's Advisory Council on Global Financial and Monetary System Reform. At the European University Institute, he serves as a member of the Florence School of Banking and Finance Advisory Council. Before joining the EU's public service, he had worked for Deutsche Bank, including positions as Director for International Financial Market Policy, as Senior Economist at Deutsche Bank Research, and at the Group Board offices. Kern is a Professor at the Leibniz Institute for Financial Research SAFE (Goethe University Frankfurt, Germany) teaching international financial market development, risk and regulation. He served as a Senior Fellow of the Transatlantic Academy in Washington (US), and was appointed the 2010 Helmut Schmidt Fellow of the ZEIT-Foundation and the German Marshall Fund. He holds academic degrees in economics, politics, and philosophy from the Universities of Oxford (Great Britain) and Leuven (Belgium) and a doctorate from Erasmus University Rotterdam (The Netherlands).

Jon Ondrejko

Executive Director of Programs at Program on International Financial Systems

Jon Ondrejko is Executive Director of Programs at PIFS, where he manages international symposia, training programs for regulators, and special events that foster dialogue and promote education on issues impacting the global financial system. Mr. Ondrejko is also a Senior Research Fellow at the Committee on Capital Markets Regulation, where he counsels on matters related to the regulation of securities markets and financial services. Before his current roles, Mr. Ondrejko practiced law as a corporate associate in the Boston office of Cooley LLP, where he represented technology and life sciences companies and their investors in connection with corporate, securities, and transactional matters.

Mark Uyeda

Commission at the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission

Mark T. Uyeda was sworn into office as a Commissioner of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on June 30, 2022, after being confirmed by the U.S. Senate. He was sworn in for a second term as Commissioner on December 28, 2023, after being confirmed by the U.S. Senate for a five-year term expiring in 2028.

Prior to becoming Commissioner, he served as an SEC detailee to both the legislative and executive branches, most recently as securities counsel to Ranking Member Pat Toomey on the U.S. Senate Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs. Commissioner Uyeda also served on detail as a policy advisor to senior leadership at the U.S. Department of the Treasury in 2017-2018 and the U.S. Department of Labor in 2020. Commissioner Uyeda has been with the SEC since 2006, serving as Senior Advisor to Chairman Jay Clayton, Counsel to Commissioners Michael S. Piwowar and Paul S. Atkins, and Assistant Director and Senior Special Counsel in the Division of Investment Management.
Before joining the SEC, Commissioner Uyeda served as Chief Advisor to the California Corporations Commissioner, the state's securities regulator, having been appointed by Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger in 2004. Earlier in his career, he worked as a corporate and securities attorney at Kirkpatrick & Lockhart (now K&L Gates) in Washington, D.C. and O'Melveny & Myers in Los Angeles.
Commissioner Uyeda earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Georgetown University in 1992 and his law degree with honors from Duke University in 1995. He is the first Asian-Pacific American to serve as a Commissioner at the SEC.

Jérôme Reboul

Managing Director of Regulatory Policy and International Affairs Directorate at the Autoritè des Marchés Financiers of France

Jérome Reboul is Managing Director of the Regulatory Policy and International Affairs Directorate at the French Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF) since July 1 2021. The Directorate covers all areas of securities regulation including market intermediaries and infrastructures, asset management, transparency requirements for issuers, as well as Fintechs and sustainable finance.

Prior to joining the AMF, Jérôme worked 11 years for the French Treasury, first as deputy head of the Banking Affairs Office, in charge of national and international banking regulation, before being appointed to manage the Savings and Financial Markets Office in May 2013, and then the Housing and Public Interest Activities Financing Office. In June 2016 he was appointed Deputy Director at the Agence des participations de l'État (French government shareholding agency). He then held the position of Deputy Secretary in charge of banks within the Treasury from August 2017 onwards.

He started his career in June 2007 at the Ministry of Public Works as a Project Manager in the Department of Urban Planning and Housing, then in July 2008, as a Project Manager at the Agence des participations de l'État. Jérôme Reboul, an alumni of the Ecole Normale Supérieure, holds a PhD in economics from the University of Toulouse and a Master's degree in public affairs from the École Nationale des Ponts et Chaussées.

Michelle Beck

Director of Wholesale Buy-Side at the Financial Conduct Authority of the United Kingdom

Michelle Beck serves as Director, Markets at the Financial Conduct Authority, responsible for the Wholesale Buyside group. Since starting her career in financial services in 1986, her focus has been on derivative products and risk management. Her previous roles include serving as a risk management fellow in the Analytics Office of the SEC's Division of Investment Management; chief risk officer for buyside firms including TIAA Financial Solutions, Nuveen and Russell Investments; and leading roles in market and operational risk, as well as derivative product trading roles, for banks in the US and Europe including Bankers Trust and Deutsche Bank. She previously lived in London from 1989-1995 while leading the market risk function for Europe at Bankers Trust. Michelle earned an M.A. in Government from Harvard University, and a B.A. in Political Science from the University of Washington in Seattle. She has served on the board of trustees of the Global Association of Risk Professionals (GARP), the CFA Society of Chicago, and served as president of GARP's Buy Side Risk Managers Forum.
